THE OLD
RED, WHITE AND BLUE

WORDS BY

MRS. C. DICKSON

MUSIC BY

CHAS. H. DRISKELL

PRICE 30 CENTS

THE DICKSON MUSIC PUB. CO.
PUBLISHED BY 243 FRANKLIN ST.
ELIZABETH, N.J.

Respectfully dedicated to the United States of America, the Army and Navy, and all Patriotic Societies

"THE OLD RED, WHITE AND BLUE"

Words by MRS. C. DICKSON

Music by
C. H. DRISKELL

Allegretto Moderato

f Hark! Lis - ten to the bu - gle
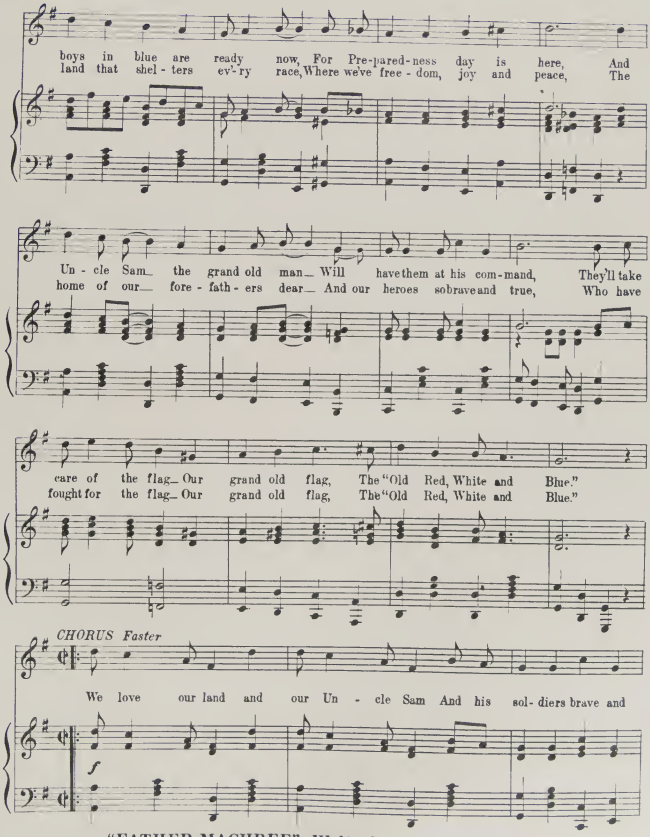
A - mer - i - ca to - day is mf call - ing, It rings out loud and clear, Our read - y, The home of the brave and free, The

Copyright MCMXVI by Mrs. C. Dickson, 243 Franklin Street, Elizabeth, New Jersey
International Copyright Secured
All Rights Reserved



boys in blue are ready now, For Pre-pared-ness day is here, And land that shel - ters ev'-ry race, Where we've free - dom, joy and peace, The Un - cle Sam the grand old man Will have them at his com-mand, They'll take home of our fore - fath - ers dear And our heroes so brave and true, Who have care of the flag Our grand old flag, The "Old Red, White and Blue."
fought for the flag Our grand old flag, The "Old Red, White and Blue."
CHORUS Faster
We love our land and our Un - cle Sam And his sol - diers brave and f

"FATHER MACHREE" - Waltz - by same writers Get this number and have the whole family

true, And the dear old flag,— the grand old flag,— The Old Red, White and Blue,— Then should our sol - diers fall, And if we should be called, To our country we'll be true, We'll be ready to fight with
rit. a tempo.
1.
2.
all our might, For the "Old Red, White and Blue." Blue."
rit. a tempo.

"ON THE BANKS OF THE SWANEE RIVER" Waltz-by same writers
The worlds most wonderful waltz-Ask your dealer for it